Holy Week at First Baptist

In a matter of weeks, we will transition from Lent into Holy Week and the celebration of Easter. Holy Week is the most significant time of remembrance and celebration of the church year. In this troubling week, Jesus enters into Jerusalem, shares a meal with his friends, prays in the garden, is denied, tried and crucified. It is a reminder of the tragedy that Christ endured for all people. This is a time that we must experience anew if we are to understand the joy of Easter. Please plan to join us as we gather in worship, Palm Sunday, Good Friday and Easter Sunday.

Palm Sunday - March 25

Palm Sunday is the Christian feast that falls on the Sunday before Easter, commemorating Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem. It is a joyous and special day at First Baptist, with palm processions in both services. You are also invited to attend the Downtown Palm Sunday Service in conjunction with other downtown churches. This special service takes place in the middle of the street on Broadway! We will meet on the front lawn at 10:20 and walk downtown together.

Awakening (9:15 am) and Traditional (11:15 am) worship will meet as usual on Palm Sunday; children are invited to take part in a Palm Sunday processional at the beginning of both worship services. Children will gather at the back of the church and be given palms, and when worship begins they parade down the aisle! Parents, please arrive a few minutes prior to worship so your children can join the fun.

Good Friday - March 30

Friday, the day the world turned dark - the day all hope turned to lament - the day of death. On Good Friday, March 30, we will gather in worship at 6 pm in the Fellowship Hall to join in the lament of those who follow Christ. It is a final moment of preparation prior to the joy of Easter.

Easter Sunday - April 1

Easter morning begins with a celebration of the Resurrection at the 9:15 am Awakening Contemporary Worship in the Fellowship Hall. Everyone is invited to enjoy pastries and beverages from 10:15 - 11:15 am. Traditional Worship will celebrate the Risen Christ at 11:15 am in the Sanctuary.

Learning to Lament

What is the difference between setting your ex-boyfriend's stuff on fire in the back yard, which I talked about in my sermon Sunday, or ranting to your best friend, which Brittany McDonald Null talked about Sunday, and lamenting before God?

Lament is not just about getting things off your chest. It is not just raging or crying. It's about casting your anxieties upon God, and trusting God with them. Mere complaining indicates a lack of intimacy with God, because lament is a form of prayer. Walter Brueggemann says that undergirding biblical lament is "a relationship between the lamenter and his God that is close and deep enough for the protester to speak in imperatives, addressing God as 'you' and reminding God of God's covenantal promises." Anyone can complain, and almost everyone does. But as followers of Christ we can lament. We can talk with God about our circumstances and ask God to change things because we have a relationship with God. To lament is to be utterly honest before God about our pain and anger. Biblical lament affirms that suffering is real and spiritually significant, but NOT hopeless. In God's mercy, God has given us a form of prayer that bends God's ear and pulls God's heart on our behalf.

Join us this Sunday as we look at Lamentations 3 and talk about hope in the midst of despair. It's still Lent, but Easter's coming! Lamentations 3 reminds us:

The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases,
his mercies never come to an end;
they are new every morning;
great is your faithfulness.

"The Lord is my portion," says my soul,
"therefore I will hope in him."

Talking to Your Kids about Sexual Harassment and Assault

Saturday, April 7: Dinner at 5 pm; Seminar 6:00-7:15 pm

We are excited to welcome licensed clinical social worker and ordained minister LeAnn Gardner back to First Baptist! LeAnn was with us a few years ago to present her SAFE Seminar: Sexual Awareness and Family Empowerment. On April 7, LeAnn will join us once again via Skype to present Talking to Your Kids About Sexual Harassment & Assault. Last fall, after the "Me Too" movement exploded and women began using the hashtag on social media to demonstrate the widespread prevalence of sexual assault and harassment, we decided to invite LeAnn back to help us think about how we talk to our kids about boundaries, consent, and safety throughout childhood. At First Baptist, we want to partner with parents to be the primary educators of their children in matters of faith and other important topics like sexuality.

Cost of the event is $10/person or $20/couple, which includes dinner for the whole family and childcare for infants up to grade 5. After dinner, the nursery will open for infants. Yvette Chambers, Director of Children's Ministry, is planning a fun evening for the children.

Practicing Lament over Comfort Food

Sunday, March 18 at 5:00 pm

We will gather on Sunday, March 18 at 5:00 pm in the Fellowship Hall to share a potluck meal. We are asking you to bring a “comfort food” to share. It could be a food associated with the security of childhood like Mom’s chicken soup or an indulgence food like ice cream.

Recently, Michael and I were talking about this event, Practicing Lament over Comfort Food, when my son Nate chimed in and said, “My comfort food is chicken and dumplings.” He is 8; I didn’t think he knew about comfort food. I was touched that he chose a food that my grandmother, who recently passed away, taught us to make.
